

New additions to the Consensio property collection for Winter 2018/19

Consensio exclusively operates an exclusive portfolio of handpicked, award-winning chalets and luxury self-catering apartments, in the French Alpine resorts of Courchevel, Val d'Isère, Meribel, Morzine and Les Gets. Catering to the desires of discerning travelers who seek indulgence, comfort and convenience, Consensio defines the luxury ski chalet market.

For the Winter 2018/19 season, Consensio has added the stunning Chalet Le Grenier in Meribel to its portfolio, and the brand-new Lorenzo self-catering apartment in Val d'Isère, which joins the growing collection of existing Consensio self-catered apartments, which were launched in 2016/17. The magnificent Chalet Elephant Blanc has also had a complete refurbishment in time for the upcoming ski season.

Guests at Consensio Chalets experience the very highest level of quality and service, with world-class chefs on hand to prepare bespoke menus for guests, private chauffeurs and a second-to-none bar selection including fine wines picked by the in-house sommelier and on tap Perrier-Jouët champagne. The spirits selection now includes an dedicated Gin Bar with a choice of six gins plus Seedlip the non-alcoholic spirit.

For the Consensio concierge, no request is too big or too outlandish, almost everything can be catered for, from the everyday, including in-chalet ski equipment fittings, baby/child essentials and special occasions, to the more unusual, such as sourcing a clients' favorite water brand, organizing extravagant milestone birthday parties, dog nannies and even keeping a chalet on Hong Kong time for business travelers!

Outstanding chalet facilities include spas, swimming pools, game rooms and state-of-the-art technology, meaning a ski holiday with Consensio is truly unforgettable.

Launch of Lorenzo luxury self-catering apartment

Consensio's self-catering portfolio expands to seven apartments in total this season, with the addition of Lorenzo, located in Val d'Isère. Lorenzo, named after the owner's first dog and his favourite couloir in the Espace Killy, can be found in the Myrtille residence on the main high street, close to the shops and the old town. The main lifts are a few minutes' walk away and guests can ski right back to the entrance door. It sleeps eight guests in four bedrooms and enjoys views of the La Face piste. A welcome basket which includes Perrier Jouet champagne as well as daily cleaning is included in the price alongside the personalised Consensio concierge service.

From €4,950 per week - self-catered
