

Val d'Isère Named the Top Ski Resort in France in Luxury Ski Trends Report 2022

Luxury ski holiday company, Consensio Chalets, has revealed the results of its annual Luxury Ski Insights 2022 report, compiled from data provided by agents and operators across the European industry, based on their bookings from the winter 2021 / 2022 season.

Consensio's research revealed that, according to travel agent sales, the most popular ski resorts in France for the luxury traveller are:

1. Val d'Isère
2. Courchevel
3. Méribel
4. Morzine
5. Val Thorens

Here's a round-up of the top ski chalets in Val d'Isère:

1. Chalet Marco Polo, Val d'Isère

Thrice winner of France's Best Ski Chalet, Chalet Marco Polo is nominated to win again at this year's World Ski Awards. With over 1000m² of alpine-chic living space, it accommodates 10 adults and 4 children and features an eco-friendly ozone technology, gold leaf swimming pool designed by Christian Lacroix, a gym with two of everything so couples can work out together and three massage and treatment rooms complete with two hours of complimentary massage every day for guests. A holiday at Chalet Marco Polo includes being waited on by an exclusive team of Consensio staff including a private chef, chalet manager, in-resort 4x4 chauffeur and chalet hosts.

2. Chalet Lhotse, Val d'Isère

Chalet Lhotse is home to six en-suite bedrooms spread over 500m². The spa facilities are phenomenal, including a large indoor eco-friendly, chlorine-free swimming pool with a state-of-the-art projector screen descending at the touch of a button. Chalet Lhotse is perfect for families, with a mezzanine lounge area ideal for children, complete with widescreen TV and games console. Chalet Lhotse comes complete with an exclusive team of Consensio staff including a private chef, chalet manager, in-resort 4x4 chauffeur and chalet hosts.

3. Chalet Le Rocher, Val d'Isère

Chalet Le Rocher truly is an extraordinary chalet, perfectly merging cutting-edge style and innovation. It has seven beautifully designed bedrooms that feel truly alpine with reclaimed wood from Mongolia and intricately carved furnishings. For children, there is a separate children's playroom, with a Lego corner, TV and the latest gaming equipment. Chalet Le Rocher also boasts an indoor swimming pool with a jet stream and drop-down film screen and a steam room disguised as a tiny chalet. Out onto the balcony, overlooking the snowy mountains, there is a red cedar hot tub fuelled by a log-burning stove, to take in the stars in ultimate luxury. Chalet Le Rocher includes an exclusive team of Consensio staff including a private chef, chalet manager, in-resort 4x4 chauffeur and chalet hosts.
